

Activities of Entrepreneurship Development Club 2018-19

Committee

Dr Julie P. Lazar, Asst. Prof., Dept. of Economics (Coordinator)

Ms Shitha Francis, Faculty, Dept. of Statistics

Sreelekha Satheesan, I BA Economics, Student Representative

Activities

Value Added Programme : Tailoring

Arranged a 30 hours (5 days) Value added Programme in Tailoring. The programme was conducted at the Extension Center at Mission Quarters, Thrissur. The topics included were cutting and stitching 5 different types of Salwar Kameez' The programme was aimed to enhance the skill of the students and as an initiative for developing entrepreneurial skills for self employment. Certificates were issued to all students who successfully completed the course.

Demonstration class on Art of Flower Making

A demonstration and practical session was arranged for flower making. Ms Ceena Nixon led the class and demonstrated the art of making variety flowers for the students. Different types of flowers were made by the students. This was done as an encouragement towards earn while you learn

Our Own - An Exhibition cum Sale

An Exhibition of food items, pickles, juices etc , handiworks , vegetables and other organic products prepared by students were exhibited and put for sale .Students from different departments participated in the programme and the returns were given to the students.

Innovative Product Designing Competition

Organised Innovative Product Designing Competition to develop the “out of the box” thinking sense of the students. 30 innovative ideas were presented and prizes were decided on the criteria of practicability and social utility of the product. Certificates were awarded to the winners

The ideas selected were:

1. Cartoon - Bag cum school desk - for students of rural area, who cannot afford to have education from schools with writing desk facilities
2. Folding helmets - For youngsters who finds difficult to carry helmets
3. Techno Auto Water Tape - Tap that automatically controls the water flow and timings

Production and Sale of Cloth bags

ED Club and Dept. of Economics jointly arranged a workshop on cloth bag making on 16-3-2019. Later 23 students were involved in the production of Cloth Bags held at extension centre of the College and in the College Campus on various days . The sale was officially inaugurated by Sr Preetha P. L., Office Superintendent. Cloth bags are made available for purchase from Department of Economics.

Hands on Session on LED Bulb Making

An hands on session was arranged for making LED Bulbs. 28 participants and 2 faculty members are part of session. Students were first oriented towards the need for energy conservation and later LED making classes were given to the students.

