

Core papers	Course Outcome
Introducing Literature	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To familiarize students with the linguistic aspects of literature. ● To introduce various poetic techniques used by writers ● To train the students read beyond the literal meaning of text. ● To help students distinguish marginalized voices within literary works
Appreciating Poetry	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To introduce the students the basic elements of poetry, including stylistic and rhetorical devices employed in poetry and various genres of poetry. ● To train students in various perspective readings in poetry like gender, race, caste ethnicity, religion, environment and nation etc
Reading Drama	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To develop a critical understanding of drama and various kinds of theatre ● To familiarize students with cultural diversity of the world ● To foster a strong sense of involvement which motivates and encourages students to learn through active participation ● To develop confidence and self esteem in their relationships with others and sensitivity towards others ● To facilitate exploration of attitudes , values and behavior and creation of roles and relationships so that the student gains an understanding of themselves and others through dramatic, imaginative experience
Reading Fiction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To develop a critical understanding of fiction

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To familiarize students with the cultural diversity of the world and to extend various perspective readings ● To cultivate a sense of involvement which motivates and encourages students to learn through active participation ● To provide students with a meaningful context for acquiring and memorizing new language and developing oral skills
Modern English Literature	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To understand the political, religious, social and cultural trends of the Modernist and Postmodernist Period ● To understand how the literature of the period relates to the important trends of the period. ● To develop an ability to read understand and respond to a wide variety of texts of the period. ● To develop the ability to construct and convey meaning in speech and writing matching style to audience and purpose
Methodology of Humanities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To know the distinction between the methodologies of natural ,social and human sciences ● To understand the questions concerning the relation between language and subjectivity as well as those pertaining to structure and agency in language ● To be aware of the theories of textuality and reading both western and Indian
Indian Writing in English	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To provide an overview of the various phases of the evolution of Indian writing in English. ● To introduce students to the thematic concerns,genres and trends of Indian writing in English. ● To generate discussions on the constraints and challenges encountered in articulating Indian sensibility in English. ● To expose students to the pluralistic aspects of Indian culture and identity.

Language and Linguistics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To lead a greater understanding of the human mind, of human communicative action and relations through an objective study of language ● To familiarize students with key concepts of Linguistics and develop awareness of latest trends in Language study ● To help students towards a better pronunciation and to improve the general standard of pronunciation in everyday conversation and in reading. ● To help the students develop a sense of English grammar, idioms, syntax and usage ● To improve writing and speech skills.
Methodology of Literature	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To familiarize students with the critical tools used in reading of literature ● To instill a broader and holistic sensibility in the student with the aim of eventually equipping him to approach, analyze and assess literary discourses through a host of complementary as well as conflictingly different theoretical frameworks. ● To form an idea of the complex nature of literary studies and how they are entangled with other aspects of the social body ● To unveil the constitutive elements and cultural specificity of literature along with the intricate process of canon formation ● To help the students gain perspective insights into socio-political dynamics, the structuring points of view, the dominant ideology, hegemony, the prevailing common sense and communal underpinnings that mediate the writing ,production, reception and survival of a work ● To familiarize the student with other media ,popular literature and emerging trends.

Informatics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The student will have a thorough general awareness of Computer hardware and software from a practical perspective • The student will have good practical skills in performing common basic tasks with the computer.
Literary Criticism and Theory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To make the students aware that all readers are critics • To familiarize them with the factors involved in criticism like interpretation, elucidation judgment and appreciation. • To introduce the students to basic texts in criticism ,relating to various movements and schools of thought • To develop critical thinking by introducing various tools of criticism-analysis, comparison, theoretical approaches etc.
Literatures In English: American and Post Colonial	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To initiate the students to varied literatures in English • To expose them to diverse modes of experiences and cultures • To familiarize them with the concepts of Post Colonialism • To enable students to compare and contrast their indigenous literature and culture with other literatures and cultures
Women's Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To enable students to identify concepts of class, race and gender as social constructs and interrelated throughout women's lives • To lead them to explore the plurality of female experience in relation to these • To equip them with analytical, critical and creative skills to interrogate the biases in the construction of gender and patriarchal norms
Writing For The Media	Understand the nature of news, the role of journalism, advertising in a democratic society, the ethical and legal restrictions on media writing, and the criteria for writing excellence.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Master the basic writing and reporting skills for various media, including news writing for print and broadcast media, and advertising copywriting. ● Think critically about writing for the media (specifically broadcast journalism, digital media and advertising); develop and apply media writing skills. ● Exhibit competence in the mechanics of concise and clear writing through the use of acceptable grammar, correct spelling, proper punctuation, and appropriate AP style.
World Classics in Translation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To introduce students to the world's best classics in translation. ● To generate a broad vision of life by making the students come to grips with universal problems and varied life situations. ● To make the students to have a feel of excellent classics in translation in various genres – Poetry, Fiction, Short story and Drama – by a judicious selection. It should instill in the students a spirit of enquiry and further exploration.