

Program specific outcome
Bachelors in Vocational Science – Applied Biotechnology

On completion of the course,

Students will have

- In-depth knowledge in both basic biological sciences and applied biological sciences.
- Analytical and strategic thinking; and creative and critical problem solving skills
- Experience in all basic scientific and system techniques
- Understanding of industrial trends

Students will be

- Able to identify problems in biology
- Technically updated and capable of applying biotechnological skills
- Aware of scope of biotechnology in agriculture, medical, environmental and industrial sectors.